60 MINUTES

- 07/05/98
- "A Very Special Brain"- a report on Williams syndrome, a birth defect caused by the absence of about 20 genes in the brain, usually resulting in an unusual appearance and mental retardation. While people born with the syndrome have profound intellectual and health problems, they occasionally exhibit remarkable musical talent. (C: Morley Safer - P: Catherine Olian) (OAD: 10/19/97)
- "McLibel"- a report on law suits filed by the McDonald's fast food corporation against individuals and organizations including a small group of British environmentalists called London Greenpeace, who had accused them of violations including underpaying their staff and destroying the rain forest; a sandwich shop called McMunchies; and a restaurant called McDonald's. Critics charge that the costly litigation accomplished nothing. (C: Ed Bradley - P: Jeanne Solomon Langley) (OAD: 12/28/97)
- "Secrets & Lies"- in a landmark legal case, Phyllis and Marty Juman are suing Louise Wise Services. They claim that the adoption agency concealed vital medical information about their son. As a teenager, Michael began to exhibit the symptoms of schizophrenia, a condition from which his mother suffered and of which the agency was aware (C: Mike Wallace - P: Walt Bogdanich) (OAD: 09/21/97)
- Andy Rooney Topic: "Nuts"- what you find in a can labelled mixed nuts (OAD: 12/28/97)
- 07/12/98
- "Smoking To Live"- a report on the controversy over the medicinal use of marijuana by patients suffering from grave diseases such as AIDS and cancer. (C: Morley Safer - P: Gail Eisen) (OAD: 12/01/91)
- "Taking on Disney"- the Southern Baptist Convention and other conservative groups are boycotting the Walt Disney Company, accusing the entertainment giant of being anti-family, anti-Christian and pro-homosexual. Disney CEO Michael Eisner says that the charges, including criticism of the hit movies "Pocahontas" and "The Little Mermaid," are without foundation. (C: Lesley Stahl - P: Jay Kernis) (OAD: 11/23/97)
- "Todd Ice"- Kentucky residents and police are irate because they were not informed about the release from prison of Todd Ice, a mentally ill man who was convicted of murdering a seven-year-old-girl eighteen years ago. Ice, who is dependent on medication to control his violent behavior, is free to live anywhere he wants and his privacy is protected by law (C: Steve Kroft - P: Harry A. Radcliffe II) (OAD: 10/06/96)
- Andy Rooney Topic: "Car Ads"- unrealistic scenes in commercials (OAD: 10/26/97)

07/19/98 "Bounty Hunter"- bounty hunters, claiming that they are taking criminals off the streets, are allowed to break down doors and search premises, and imprison or transport fugitives across state lines, without a judge's order or any requirement that they be trained or licensed. Critics accuse them of unnecessary brutality (C: Steve Kroft - P: Harry A. Radcliffe II) (OAD: 01/05/97)
"Imus"- an interview with radio "shock jock" Don Imus (C: Mike Wallace -P: Tom Anderson) (OAD: 03/31/96)
"Working On A Miracle"- Dr. Mahlon Johnson, a neuropathologist at Vanderbilt Medical Center, was infected with the AIDS virus when he cut himself while performing an autopsy. Dr. Johnson immediately began treating himself with AZT and other anti-viral drugs and was subsequently found to be free of the virus. His more aggressive approach, while not seen as a cure, gives hope to other AIDS sufferers (C: Ed Bradley - P: Amy Cunningham Atkinson) (OAD: 01/12/97)
Andy Rooney Topic: "Magazines"- things about magazines that annoy Andy (OAD: 11/16/97)

07/26/98 "The Search"- "Landscape with Smokestacks," a painting by French impressionist Edgar Degas was purchased by Daniel Searle in 1987. Searle is being sued by Nick and Simon Goodman, Los Angeles brothers who claimed that the Degas belonged to their grandfather, Freidrich Gutmann, and was stolen by the Nazis during World War II (C: Morley Safer - P: Steven Reiner) (OAD: 01/19/97)
"Was Rolando Cruz Framed?"- a report on a trial, soon to begin in Chicago, which could have a major impact on the U.S. criminal justice system. Seven prosecutors and police officers stand accused of fabricating evidence that sent Rolando Cruz, an innocent man, to death row for the rape and murder of a 10-year-old girl. Includes an interview with author/lawyer Scott Turow who acted as attorney for Alex Hernandez, also a suspect in the case (C: Ed Bradley - P: Michael Radutsky) (followup of "Shadow of Doubt" OAD: 10/17/93) (OAD: 10/12/97)
"There's No Business Like Shoe Business"- sporting goods companies, including Nike and Adidas are scouring the country for budding basketball stars. The companies who are approaching children as young as 10-years-old, claim that they are affording the young athletes opportunities not otherwise open to them. Critics charge that their only consideration is profit. (C: Lesley Stahl - P: Rome Hartman) (OAD: 10/26/97)
Andy Rooney Topic: "Sports Clothing"- what athletes wear (OAD: 12/14/97)

48 HOURS

07/02/98 "Vegas Stripped"- 48 HOURS goes behind-the-scenes at Las Vegas casinos, where hidden high-tech cameras record every gambler's move and specially trained private investigators crack down on cheaters all over the country. Includes interviews with Andy Anderson, Griffin Investigations; Tom Highland, one of the most feared card players in America; entertainer Wayne Newton; Susan, a 14-year-old girl who turned to prostitution and who is now trying to get her life back; footage of big bettors, called "whales," including Larry Flynt, publisher of Hustler magazine; and of Las Vegas Police Officer Anthony Brown who moonlights as a dancer in "Bally's Jubilee," one of the longest-running dance shows on the strip. (OAD: 12/18/97)

- 07/06/98 "Who Killed Jane?"- On November 22, 1993, Jane Neumann was found dead of a gunshot wound in the basement of her home in Hudson, Wisconsin. 48 HOURS takes viewers inside the investigation of her bizarre death and includes an interview with Jane's husband Jim, who originally told police Jane was murdered by an intruder and then later changed his story and said she committed suicide. Although Jim says he only lied to protect Jane's reputation, her parents, Pat and Charlie Johnston, felt he was lying and filed a civil suit against him, claiming he was involved in the murder. Neumann was found liable in the civil suit but unless new evidence is uncovered it is unlikely that criminal charges can be brought against him (OAD: 11/06/97 with an update)
- 07/09/98 "Eyewitness"- eyewitness testimony, often instrumental in deciding the outcome of court cases, is also one of the most unreliable types of evidence. In fact, experts say there is no relationship between witness' confidence and their ability to identify a suspect accurately. The broadcast examines several cases in which eyewitness testimony is a crucial part of the evidence and includes interviews with defense attorney Peter Neufield; Professors Richard Farrell and Saul Polero of Brooklyn Law School as well as Ferris Reukstul, a leading authority on the Kennedy assassination. (C: Dan Rather, Wyatt Anderson, Harold Dow - P: Linda Martin, Steve Glauber, Meryl Schaefer)
- 07/13/98 "The Journey Home"- A report focusing on child abduction and on the rebuilding of a family after the children are recovered. The focus is on Marjory Chapell Gray, a mother whose two young children disappeared with their father after she had been awarded custody. (OAD: 10/19/95 with an update)
- 07/16/98 "Making It"- focuses on the stories of people who are trying to make it big in America. Includes interviews with Nick Sparks, a pharmaceutical salesman whose best-selling novel called Notebook was purchased by Warner Brothers for one million dollars; Darren Aronofsky, Khari Streeter, Demane Davis and Vin Diesel, aspiring film directors who are struggling to have their work recognized. (C: Erin Moriarty, Bill Lagattuta - P: Andrew Cohen, Alec Sirken, Mary Sue Holland)
"Smooth Operator"- an interview with Kim Bauer an employee at the ice cream counter at Stew Leonard's supermarket in Norwalk, Connecticut who was named the store's "superstar" of the month (C: Bill Geist - P: Richard Rosen)
- 07/20/98 PREEMPTION
- 07/23/98 "Stickup!"- behind the scenes with the FBI and the Los Angeles Police Department as they respond to seven separate bank robberies over the course of 48 hours. Viewers see a high-speed chase as an armed bank robber tries to make his getaway, leading law enforcement on a wild 90 minute pursuit to the Mexican border. Also included is footage filmed moments after a bank robbery and an interview with Bill Rehder of the FBI who specializes in tracking and catching bank robbers (OAD: 09/11/97 with an update)
- 07/27/98 "A Teacher's Touch"- A report on physical education teacher Craig Gordan's fight before a Fairfax County, Virginia School Board to save his job in the face of sexual abuse charges by former students. (OAD: 09/14/94)

07/30/98 "Saving Mom And Dad"- over the next 30 years, the number of Americans 85 and older is expected to double, and many baby boomers will actually spend more time caring for their parents than for their own children. The broadcast follows the stories of several people who are being forced to make painstaking choices about parent care and includes interviews with Florida lawyer Jim Wilkes who has built a profitable career out of suing nursing homes and Dr. Bill Thomas, founder of Eden alternative, a program which strives to give the elderly a reason to live by surrounding them with love, pets, plants and children. (C: Susan Spencer, Kristin Jeannette-Meyers, Thalia Assuras, Harold Dow - P: Jay Young, Clare Friedland, Chuck Stevenson, Doug Longhini, Gavin Boyle, Sophia M. Kim)

PUBLIC EYE WITH BRYANT GUMBEL

07/01/98 "Fight For Survival"- a report on possible hazards encountered by travelers who opt for currently popular adventure vacations. Includes interviews with some of the passengers on a cruise ship which capsized off the Galapagos Islands throwing all aboard into the sea and resulting in the drowning of two. (C: Derek McGinty - P: Tamara Weitzman, Dana Robertson-Johnson)
"A Foreign Affair"- a report on the difference in attitudes between the French and American people regarding extra-marital affairs. The French consider dalliances, even among political leaders, to be a fact of life rather than a scandal (C: Richard Schlesinger - P: Tamara Weitzman)
"Inside Story"- an interview with Barry Keenan, the man who masterminded the 1963 kidnapping of Frank Sinatra, Jr. (C: Bryant Gumbel - P: Bill McGowan)
"What's In A Name?"- profile of David Johnson, a reporter who finds interesting stories involving the people living around Lewiston, Idaho (C: Steve Hartman - P: David Wald)

07/08/98 "A Second Chance"- focuses on Bill and Cathy Grinnan, a Tucson couple with six children and their about-to-be-born daughter Hannah. Doctors have discovered that the infant has Hypo-Plastic Heart syndrome, a defect that claimed the life of another of the couple's children. Shortly after her birth Hannah was taken to Loma Linda Hospital in California where life-saving heart transplant surgery was performed (C: Maggie Cooper - P: Tom Forman)
"Public Eye Q"- "Infamous Infernos"- Question: where was the worst wild fire in U.S. history? Answer: northern Wisconsin
"Bull Session"- a report on the California Academy of Taurmaquia in San Diego, the only bullfighting school in America. Because bullfighting is illegal in the U.S. students are forced to learn maneuvers without using a live bull. (C: Steve Hartman - P: Tom Forman)

07/15/98 "Breaking Away"- a report on Children of God, a cult founded in the 70's by David Berg, a failed mainstream preacher. Berg dictated every aspect of his followers' lives, insisting that all cult members, even children, be sexually active as a means of spreading God's word. (C: Maggie Cooper - P: Hillari Palatnik)
"Classic Killer?"- an investigation of whether popular Ford Mustangs built between 1964 and 1970 and still on the road today are putting American lives at risk. Severe injuries and fatalities have resulted when the cars' gas tanks exploded following rear-end collisions. (C: John Blackstone - P: George Osterkamp)
"Dream Jobs"- an increasing number of companies are finding that a short nap during the work day can increase an employee's productivity. Includes interviews with Dr. James Maas, a sleep expert and Bill Anthony the author of a book on napping (C: Richard Schlesinger - P: Christopher Martin)
"Chimp Champion"- an interview with Annie Olivecrona, a Swedish woman who runs the Sweetwater Chimpanzee Sanctuary, a refuge for chimps who have been abandoned as adults or orphaned as babies and cannot survive on their own (C: Alison Stewart - P: Hillari Palatnik)
"Public Eye Q"- Question: Why are the scorching days of summer called the dog days? Answer: The dog days get their name from the so-called dog star, Sirius, part of the constellation Canis Major

07/22/98 PREEMPTION

07/29/98 "Face To Face"- focuses on 20-year-old Joel Sonnenberg, who as a two-year-old was burned over 88 percent of his body when a truck plowed into the car in which he was riding. Despite severe disfigurement and the pain endured during countless surgeries, Joel, now a sophomore at Taylor University, has maintained a positive attitude and has taken an active part in school activities. Now, 19 years later, he was able to confront Reginald Dort, the truck driver responsible for the accident, in a New Hampshire courtroom where Dort was sentenced to three years in prison. (C: Carol Marin - P: Don Mosely)
"Superhuman"- a report Kenyan distance runners who over the last 30 years have won three times as many Olympic medals as any other nation. Includes interviews with runner Godfrey Kiprotich and John Manners author of The Running Tribe (C: Bryant Gumbel - P: Sydney Tratner)
"Look Out!"- a report on tsunamis, giant tidal waves created by underwater earthquakes. Includes footage of Crescent City, California which was hit by a tsunami in 1964 (C: Maggie Cooper - P: Tom Forman, Christopher Martin, Christine Weicher)
